Core Values are deeply-held inner beliefs that are embraced by the organization and that have intrinsic value in building relationships. The HR Director need to be available to building outside relationship.

Deal Diagram for the Transaction - This shows our anticipated structure and that FIELD is likely to net approximately $1.9MM for the Union Street project, including working capital.

FIELD - ANTICIPATED NMTC DEAL DIAGRAM

Key Points Related to the New Entity -

- A) We need to create a new legal entity in order to make the NMTC structure work. That is because the party that acts as the NMTC borrower (FIELD) and the party that acts as the leverage lender (aka the party that puts money into the NMTC structure) must be legally distinct. If they are the same, you cannot use NMTCs.
- B) The party that we will create will be the leverage lender ("FIELD Enterprises, LLC)
- C) The entity will be a non-profit support organization/foundation for FIELD. Its role will be to provide funding for FIELD's projects/programs. With regard to NMTCs, it will provide a leverage loan to the NMTC Investment Fund that will facilitate the NMTC transaction. FIELD can decide if you want this entity to fund just the Union Street project or if you want it to fund other programs as well. It will be formed by FIELD's NMTC legal counsel.
- D) The new entity will have 5 board members. 3 of the board members can include current FIELD board members and/or staff. The other 2 board members must be independent. They can be prior board members or staff or other parties supportive of FIELD. FIELD will appoint the board members.
- E) For FIELD to establish this entity, we need board approval to do so. Ideally board members will: (1) allow for the creation of the entity, (2) allow FIELD leadership to name the entity, and (3) allow FIELD leadership to select the 5 board members.
