

Patrick Pine, FIELD's Secretary on the Board of Directors, is the Chief Administrative Officer of the Robert F. Kennedy Medical Plan and the Juan De La Cruz Pension Plan. The two benefit trusts are union benefit plans affiliated with the United Farm Workers (UFW). The medical plan serves about 3000 employees from over 30 employers and the pension plan hold assets of about $85 million paying benefits to over 4900 beneficiaries.

Mr. Pine previously managed benefits for adidas America, ESCO Corporation, Providence Health and at American Benefit Plan Administrators (now Zenith American). He spent 25 years in public finance and government including for the Oregon Governor and Nevada Governor.

Patrick Pine is current vice chair of the California Health Care Coalition, past chair of the Oregon Health Care Purchasers Coalition and past president of the Oregon Municipal Finance Officers Association. He holds an MBA and BA from Willamette University, Salem OR.