

Dr. Jesse Ortiz is retired Yolo County Superintendent of Schools, having close to 38 years of educational and management experience in K-18 public education.

Jesse is currently Sr. District Director for Congressman John Garamendi who represents California's 3rd District covering Northern California counties. He also serves as a Trustee for the Yuba Community College District representing Yolo County where he was born and raised in Woodland.

Jesse is a strong advocate for public education and promoting educational equity for all children, in particular for those from low-income backgrounds.

Jesse has a Bachelor's degree from San Jose State University and a Master's degree from Sacramento State University. His educational leadership doctorate degree is from Brigham Young University.